

Film Formers

Consumers Insist On Feeling Comfortable With Their Cosmetics And Skin Care Products

Momentive Film Formers Are Supple Enough To Move Just Like Skin And Last All Day

Your mission is to create beauty formulations that perform brilliantly under all conditions. You want to create skin care, cosmetics and hair care products that are long-lasting, oil and water resistant and transfer resistant (no smearing or migrating). Our film formers deliver all those things while allowing you to provide consumers with products that are smoother, softer and non-tacky. The Product Selection Table on the back cover will make it easy for you to match specific ingredients with the extraordinary benefits they deliver.
